PORTRAIT OF MADAME OLGA CONUS

By

Sr. Cecilia Huber, OSU

"My life has been spent on beauty and the ugliness that I have seen has made that beauty all the more precious to me."

Olga Conus

These few words by Madame Olga Conus give the reader a glimpse into the amazing life of this extraordinary woman. Sr. Cecilia gives us a story of the great gift of music that inspired Madame Conus throughout her life from her childhood in Russia through the Bolshevik Revolution, to Paris and finally to Cincinnati where she became a piano instructor at Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. The "Conus Method" is widely known and continues through her former students. This is the story of her life-journey shared by Sr. Cecilia, her student and friend.
