Supported by the service of a leadership team, lay women and men who are spiritually hungry gather into a community where they can learn and grow with spiritually solid practices that support a contemplative life in the world.

SPIRITUAL PRACTICES AND A YEARLY RETREAT
Chatfield College Library, St. Martin, OH

1st Tuesday of the month from 10-11:30: LECTIO DIVINA, based on an ancient form of Scriptural prayer with Erna Dennis

4th Friday of the month from 10-11:30: CREATIVE WRITING, about events in our lives and the Spirit's leading with Vicki McDonald.

Weekly: HOPE EMERGENCY, volunteering opportunities to help the needy.

Annual Retreat, usually held the first Saturday of November, with a specific theme sometimes with a guest speaker, but always including prayer, song and sharing. This retreat is open to all the Sisters, companions, friends and anyone else who may be interested . Quoting Sr. Pat Brockman: "May our spiritual eyes and ears continue to be opened to the ever new Word of God within us."

Our group song is: Ubi Caritas et amor, Ubi Caritas Deus ibi est.
(Where charity and love are, there God is.)
